REMEMBER: This is an old Legion - it has cement floors - please bring a pair of shoes or slippers that you will be comfortable in for the day. Also, there is a dog and a cat at this location, so please be aware of this if you have allergies. We can keep the animals out of the room, but still if you have an allergy you might have some issues.

There is a limit to 70 people. I am afraid we will have to turn away anyone after that number.

I will forward a map along with your invoice once your registration form is processed.

If you have any questions please forward them to Beth at Nunniyer Business Services
